Raising Readers Tune-Up

Spring is finally here! In honor of its arrival, let's take a moment to give our Raising Readers programs a spring tune-up.

Follow this easy check list:

- ✓ Newborn totes are given at birth.
- ✓ Books are given only at well-child visits.
- ✓ Totes and books given are tracked.
- ✓ Report and order forms are sent to Raising Readers office in a timely fashion.

Follow these simple rules of the road and your Raising Readers program will keep rolling along. Happy spring! And, thanks!

Bright Idea

Wish you had books to give children at sick visits, or to older siblings of kids receiving a Raising Readers book?

Here's an idea...

Place a sign in your lobby asking parents to donate new or "gently used" books for that purpose – then you'll have a supply of books you can use to make a child's day. We've been told this works out very well at some sites.
